The Ballpoint Pen

Ballpoint pens have not been around for very long. John Loud invented the first ballpoint pen in 1888. Before the invention of ballpoint pens, people had to dip their pens into ink when they were writing. This made writing slow. Also, sometimes too much ink made the writing messy. Ballpoint pens were the first pens that did not need to be dipped in ink. Laud's invention was wonderful, but the design was still not perfect. Sometimes the pen did not get enough ink, and sometimes it got too much ink. Other inventors continued to work on the design of the ballpoint pen to improve it. For the next 30 years, inventors created over 350 kinds of ballpoint pens. But still the pens did not work very well, and people did not buy them. It wasn't until 1935 that Ladislav Biro and his brother developed an improved ballpoint pen in Hungary. Today, in the U.K. and Australia, some people call ballpoint pens biros after their inventor.

Reading and comprehension:

There is a very special bond—or tie—between identical twins. Of course, identical twins look alike. When they get older, they sometimes even have the same number of wrinkles around their eyes. Most twins also share a special bond, an amazing feeling of closeness with each other. And identical twins behave alike. For example, one pair of twins both walk into the ocean backward and only up to their knees.

For John and William Bloomfield, the special bond went beyond life. The Bloomfield twins did everything together. One night they were eating dinner together at a restaurant. John—or perhaps it was William—had a heart attack and died. His brother immediately had a heart attack and died, too. The medics couldn't save either brother, or even figure out who was John and who was William.

California twins Ronald and Donald Anderson shared a single life. Everyone thought there was only one Mr. Anderson. One day Ronald Anderson robbed a bank. The police were sure that Ronald Anderson was the thief. They saw him running away. There was one problem: When the bank was robbed, Ronald Anderson was already in jail. If he was in jail, he was not the thief. The police were confused. Finally, they found the answer. There were two Anderson brothers—twins! For many years, they pretended to be one person. Donald Anderson was in jail. Ronald Anderson robbed the bank. Now Ronald Anderson is in jail, too.
